

Japan Company Incorporation Brief

The most commonly used option for Japanese Company Incorporation is establishing any of the following:

* Kabushiki-Kaisha (KK)/Joint Stock Company: <https://sarkaroffice.com/japan-kabushiki-kaisha.html>

* Godo-Kaisha (GK)/ Limited Liability Company: <https://sarkaroffice.com/godo-kaisha.html>

A Japanese address is required for company registration, and a Japanese Telephone is required for post-registration statutory compliance. A Resident in Japan is not mandatory for registering a Japanese Company(KK or GK). Both Promoters/Shareholders and Directors can be Non-Residents.

GK is more flexible for the Paid-up Capital procedure for company registration than KK for Non-Resident Shareholders/Directors.
